OBJECTIVE

Obtain a rewarding position as an Entry-Level Front End Developer to use skills in web development, UX, SEO as well as bring my existing efforts to maximize sales via Amazon and other eCom efforts.

EXPERIENCE

Patrick Cadillac/Volvo, Schaumburg, IL — Business Development Representative

October 2021 - PRESENT

Fast paced work environment where I support and aspire current and previous customer interest by answering inbound communications combined with making outbound communications to prospects nationally to ultimately generate traffic into the dealership whether it be in person or virtually. I communicate with management in multiple departments daily to meet and exceed customers' needs and expectations. Create reports on Excel to then be sent via Outlook before presenting to management. I multitask daily to meet daily tasks and goals.

Gregory Infiniti, Libertyville, IL — Business Development Manager

August 2021 - October 2021

Trained and managed my department to make all communication efficient and make the end goal of each conversation highly achievable, ultimately increasing traffic within the dealership. Communicated with the Owner, General Manager, Finance Manager and sales team on a daily basis. I worked alongside my department and assisted in communication with our customer base as well as created processes and templates to further generate responses.
